PROFILE

I'm Rohini Ghogare, a BCA student at RCP Institute of Management, Research and Development, aspiring to become a skilled Data Analyst. I have a solid foundation in Power BI, Excel, and data analysis basics, and I'm continually learning data-driven tools to turn data into actionable insights.
My aim is to support informed decisions and drive meaningful outcomes through data.

EXPERIENCE

Elevate Labs :                          2025 - PRESENT

- Currently, I am doing a Java internship at Elevate Labs, where I have worked on several projects using Core Java. I have successfully completed multiple small- to mid-scale projects, and I am presently working on a major project as part of the internship.

TechnoHacks EduTech :                    2023-2024

- I have completed a 1-month internship in Web Development and C Programming at TechnoHacks EduTech. During the internship, I developed and uploaded 3 basic projects on LinkedIn, showcasing my practical skills and understanding of core concepts in both domains.

IMRD Tech Club :                         2024 - 2025

- I have been selected for the Technical Training Team of our college club, where I will contribute and grow through collaborative learning and technical activities.
